ICT Recruitment Consultant

The Client

Located in a beautiful inner-city area with the allocation of free parking, our client has been in operation since 2004 and has gone from strength to strength. With their Head office in Sydney and divisions throughout the East Coast of Australia the Brisbane office is an integral part of the bigger footprint and every State collaborates closely on Client outcomes.

The Role

This is full 360 ICT Recruitment Consultant role. Your main charter is building business in ICT and delivering talent to your clients across both temp and perm. Focused on the Account rather than the vertical, this gives you full flexibility to deliver. Once you've got runs on the board you will have full access to a Resourcer to help generate talent for your roles.

Your experience

- ICT Recruitment Experience with proven track record in delivery
- Previous B2B Business Development experience with a demonstrated history of solid growth
- Energy for sales – ability to generate new business
- Understanding client delivery – full scope of requirements
- Excellent written and verbal communication – proposals, profiles etc

Why join the team?

Fantastic team environment, where collaboration is intrinsic to the business. Excellent working conditions, with weekly yoga, garden roof top, football table and then there is the salary and highly competitive, fully transparent, commission structure. Flexible work environment with the ability to remote access. National annual conference.
