

Entirety Consulting

Recruitment & Projects

EC119 Blue Collar/Trades Candidate Services Consultant - Brisbane

Client

With Branches in Brisbane (Head Office), Gold Coast, Sydney and Melbourne this privately owned Blue Collar, Trades Recruitment Company is growing, through planned, strategic business relationships. Head office is in the Southern suburbs of Brisbane, within walking distance from public transport. Due to the continued growth, a Candidate Services Consultant is required to service and build the candidate talent pool across varying sectors within blue collar and trades.

The Role

To perform this role, candidate care experience is paramount with the ability to work on conflicting priorities for clients and keep them informed. You will report to the Team Leader and be given scope to develop further in the role. You will have exceptional attention to detail and be intrinsically motivated to deliver on candidate and client expectations. Your ability to source and secure talent for the available roles is the main priority.

What is on offer

You will become part of a collaborative team and join a cohesive business with an open and consultative mentality. You will be offered systems training and given the scope to deliver in your role. You will be on salary and rewarded above that, based on outcomes. This is an excellent opportunity for a 360 recruiter to step into a Candidate focused role.

For a confidential discussion regarding this opportunity please call Tracey on 0409 599 303 or forward your cover letter and resume to tracey@entiretyconsulting.com.au

